

it will be in the general interest if we and the Americans are ready with ideas of our own which can be discussed in the W.E.U. forum in the event of the expected failure of the French and Germans to agree direct.

25. The above has been agreed with the Legal Advisers and Western Organisations Department. Northern Department agree with paragraph 17.

(C. H. Johnston)